

One Imperfect Christmas

Myra Johnson

Only Love Makes a Christmas Perfect

Christmas is the season of miracles, but when blame and guilt keep people apart, a miracle needs a helping hand.

Natalie Pearce loves Christmas so much she'd gladly make it a year-round celebration—until her mother suffers a massive stroke while taking down the decorations. Natalie's guilt over not being there to help her mom soon builds a wall that separates her from the rest of her family, including her husband, Daniel, and their teenage daughter. As the next December approaches, the last thing Natalie wants to be reminded of is another Christmas season.

But will her family's tenacious love and an unexpected Christmas gift from her mother help Natalie mend the broken pieces of their lives?

A warm, inspirational story of faith, hope, and love for the holiday season!

Myra Johnson launched her writing career in 1985 when she sold her first short story while taking a course through the Institute of Children's Literature. Myra later joined the ICL staff as a magazine writing instructor. One ImPerfect Christmas is her debut novel. Myra and her husband, Jack, have been married since 1972 and are recent transplants from Texas to the greater Tulsa, Oklahoma, area. They share their home with two love-hungry dogs and a snobby parakeet. The Johnsons have two daughters, both married, and five grandchildren.
